

Philosophy Day

Sunday 6th September 2020

Sundey Hill Farm, Brinkworth, Wilts. SN15 5AS

Green Philosophy – How to think seriously about the planet

Schedule

10am	Arrival: Tea and Coffee
10.30 – 11.30am	‘Green Philosophy’ introduced by Ian Christie
12.00 – 12.30 pm	‘Litterary Oikophilia’ by George Monck
12.30 – 1.00pm	‘A Green Countryside’ by Tim Bonner
LUNCH
2.30pm – 3.30pm	Panel led by Frances Ward in discussion with Lucy Scruton, Gemma Jolliffe and Saurav Tamang on the subject of: ‘Like There's No Tomorrow: Climate Crisis, Eco-Anxiety and God’.
3.30 – 4.30pm	Full panel discussion (all speakers) and Q&A
4.30pm	Next steps for Scrutopia and Green Philosophy
5pm	Depart

Panellists, biographical details

Ian Christie is senior lecturer in social science of sustainable development at the University of Surrey, also formerly head of the think-tank Demos and a founding member with Roger and Sophie of the Town and Country Forum. His tribute can be read here.

George Monck Chief Executive of the charity CleanupUK and one time assistant to the organist of Garsdon Church.

Tim Bonner is Chief Executive of the Countryside Alliance.

Frances Ward is an Anglican Priest and theologian who served as Dean of St Edmundsbury from 2010 to 2017. She is the author of “Like There's No Tomorrow: Climate Crisis, Eco-Anxiety and God” (Sacristy Press, March 2020). Frances Ward’s tribute can be read here

Lucy Scruton is an undergraduate studying Biology

Gemma Jolliffe is an undergraduate studying Geography

Saurav Tamang is a sixth form student

Tickets

Adults £50; under 25s/Students: £20 available on www.rogerscruton.com or please use booking form attached and e-mail attendance to izzy@rogerscruton.com